

Huron High School PTSO Dues

The Huron Parent Teacher Student Organization (PTSO) supports our Huron community in many ways including the following activities and programs:

- Provides academic grants for teachers to cover the costs of materials and programs that enhance learning but are not covered by the school district
- Communicates via e-notes, website and other means with parents, staff and students
- Funds school improvements, including landscaping, clean-up activities and capital purchases
- Operates the Spirit Shop Online, which sells spirit items (t-shirts, sweatshirts, car decals, etc.)
- Recruits and organizes volunteers to facilitate staff and student activities
- Supports and coordinates appreciation events for staff
- Provides support for graduation activities for Huron seniors

The Huron PTSO is a non-profit organization that relies on contributions to ensure continuation of these important activities. Your financial support sends a powerful message of caring to all Huron students, families and staff.
